Dear Mr Hudson

The Federation of Racecourse Bookmakers Limited

Our client, The Federation of Racecourse Bookmakers Limited (FRB), has asked us to advise it on your letter of 12 January 2017 addressed to the secretary of our client,

We do not wholly understand your letter. We note though that, as we have previously explained to your solicitors:

1. your Association has no standing in relation to the FRB and no entitlements in relation to it;
2. the FRB's policies are set, and its actions agreed, by its directors; and
3. those directors are appointed from time to time by its members.

You are perfectly aware that the FRB accounts are filed annually in accordance with all the statutory requirements and you may look at these should you wish.

Neither we nor our client have anything further to say in relation to your letter and we have advised our client to regard this matter as closed and not to respond to you should you make any further requests for information or demands as to how it should act.

Yours sincerely

Mark Lucas
