Dear Brian

Further to our letter sent to you on 8th August, of which we have yet to receive a detailed reply, we now see that you are bestowing the virtues of FRB affiliation, along with a very inaccurate letter of a meeting hosted in Dewsbury last year on your website.

As we believe that the data belongs to the individual bookmaker and not the organisation that makes the distribution, listed below are a series of dates for the different data periods for which the individual totals need disclosing.

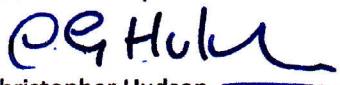

- What funds are available for ALL bookmakers for the year up to 01/04/16 from all sources of data receipts.
- What funds are available for ALL bookmakers for the period 01/04/16 to 31/05/16 from all Sources of data receipts.
- What funds are available for ALL bookmakers from non AMRAC courses for the period 01/04/16 to 30/09/16.

The total of these amounts should then be verified with the disclosure of the FRB's bank statements at 30/09/16.

The additional amount above this will be the first 3 months of the new AMRAC arrangements which we have now distributed to our members.

Only when you have discharged ALL of these payments can you make payments that exclude certain categories of Bookmakers to Gambling Charities.

Yours faithfully

Christopher Hudson
